

VACANCY: VETERINARIAN

HUSBANDRY MANAGER NEEDED FOR A CROCODILE FARM

Qualifications & experience:

Qualified veterinarian with minimum of 5 years practical experience

Registered with the SA Veterinary Council

Computer literate

Responsibilities:

Manage crocodile husbandry operations, including:

- Herd health and welfare, production, reproduction and nutrition.
- Biosecurity
- Diagnosis and treatment of disease (therapeutic and preventative)
- Feed intake, growth and harvesting data monitoring
- Meat safety control
- Day to day husbandry planning & staff oversight & management
- Staff training program
- Register and maintain in-house veterinary practice

Applications & Closing date: Closing date 30 April. If no response to your application is received within two weeks after closing date please consider your application as unsuccessful.