Q4: Where can I study to become a veterinary technologist?
A4: The Tshwane University of Technology trains veterinary technologists. The Diploma in Veterinary Technology is being phased out and replaced with the Bachelor in Health Science (BHSc in Veterinary Technology) from 2020.
Website: www.tut.ac.za

Q5: Where can I study to become a veterinary physiotherapist?
A5: The new para-veterinary profession of veterinary physiotherapist has been promulgated at the end of December 2017. Council is still in the process of bringing persons on board following the promulgation of the profession. In future, the BSc in Veterinary Physiotherapy (currently offered by Equine-Librium College) will be the only qualification accepted as a prescribed qualification (i.e. no registration examination required).

All other foreign or non-prescribed qualifications will need to be evaluated to determine whether the holder of that qualification will be allowed entry into a registration examination determined by Council.
Q6: Are there any other veterinary qualifications accepted for automatic registration?
A6: The following veterinary qualifications are currently accredited for automatic registration (i.e. no Council registration examination is needed):

Registration Examination

[Prospective candidates are encouraged to read ALL the questions and answers.]

Q1: What can I do if I want to practice as a veterinarian or para-veterinarian while I prepare for the SAVC registration exam?
A1: Please contact the SAVC Registration Section in order to find out about authorisation to work. You will need a firm job offer, and your prospective employer will need to apply for authorisation.

Q2: When will the updated examination documents, including fees payable, be available on the SAVC website?
A2: The documents will be available annually at the end of February.
Q3: When is the deadline for the examination applications?
A3: 30 June annually

Q4: When is the deadline for the payment of the application and examination fees?
A4: 30 June annually

Q5: Is it possible to make down payments of the examination fees?
A5: No down payments will be accepted.

Q6: When will the examination be held in 2020?
A6: The examination has been postponed to 2021 as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic and challenges. A new date will be determined in liaison with the Faculty of Veterinary Science, University of Pretoria.

Q7: Is it compulsory to have application documents signed before a Commissioner of Oaths?
A7: Yes. Application documents will not be accepted unless signed before a Commissioner of Oaths in SA or at the SA embassy abroad.

Q8: Is submission of copies of the original documents acceptable?
A8: Copies of the original documents will be accepted for application purposes. Original documents must be presented on the first day of the Computer Based Examination (CBE) before entry will be allowed into the examination room.

Q9: Which holders of veterinary qualifications are allowed entry into the registration examination without curriculum evaluation?
A9: All holders of veterinary qualifications listed on the American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA) list will not be required to submit detailed curricula. From 2021 all curricula will be assessed unless a person holding the same qualification as the applicant has previously successfully completed the examination.

Q10: Why should the curriculum of foreign veterinary or para-veterinary qualifications be supplied when the applicant is requested to do so?
A10: In some cases, the SAVC will need to assess the foreign qualification in order to see that the curriculum content is comparable to the other qualifications that qualify for access to the SAVC registration exam.

Q11: When is the deadline for submission of veterinary or para-veterinary qualifications for evaluation?
A11: The deadline for submission of veterinary or para-veterinary qualifications for evaluation is in December of the year before the candidate plans to sit the examination in order to allow time for the evaluation of the curriculum.

Q12: What proof of proficiency in English is accepted by the SAVC?
A12: Proof of proficiency in English must be demonstrated by providing proof of the successful completion of TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) (83/120) to sit both the Computer Based Examination (CBE) and to undertake the Practical Examination.
Q13: Will the requirement of successful completion of TOEFL be waived in any instances?
A13: The requirement is waived for persons whose medium of instruction for their veterinary or para-veterinary training was in English and proof is furnished i.e. proof of English being the language of teaching at the institution of training.

Q14: What format does the examination take?
A14: The examination consists of at least two parts: a) a Computer Based Examination (CBE) with multiple choice questions that takes place over two (2) days and b) a Practical Examination consisting of different examination panels.

In addition, the opportunity to perform an ovariohysterectomy will be offered to veterinarians two weeks after successful completion of the initial Practical Examination.

Q15: Will all candidates be allowed entry into the Practical Examination?
A15: No, only candidates who passed the Computer Based Examination with the required mark will be allowed entry into the Practical Examination.

Q16: Will the results of the CBE be made available after the completion of the CBE?
A16: Yes, candidates will be informed in writing after the CBE as only candidates who passed the Computer Based Examination with the required mark will be allowed entry into the Practical Examination. Final results will, however, only be made available, in writing, after Council has ratified all the examination results at the next Council meeting.

Q17: When will the schedule for the Practical Examination be available?
A17: The schedule for the Practical Examination will only be supplied by the SAVC Administration in the week following the completion of the CBE.

Q18: Will protective gear for the Practical Examination be supplied?
A18: No, each candidate is responsible for bringing his/her own protective gear.

Q19: Does the Council supply study material for the examination?
A19: Council is not a training institution and therefore does not supply study material. Candidates may contact the relevant local training institutions to obtain study notes.

Q20: Will an ancillary examination be offered?
A20: Ancillary examinations are offered in the Practical Examination ONLY, to candidates who achieve an overall average of 50% for the Practical Examination, but failed ONE practical panel with marks between 40% - 44,9% for this panel.

An ancillary examination is, however, not offered for the ovariohysterectomy to be conducted after successful completion of the initial Practical Examination in the examination for veterinarians.

Q21: Does a candidate have to repeat the full examination if they fail one component of the examination?
A21: Candidates who fail the practical examination, but pass the CBE, as per the stipulated rules, may re-take only the practical examination at its following offering, on condition that the prescribed examination fee is paid and other entrance requirements are met.

Q22: When will the candidate be informed of his/her final results?
A22: Final results will be made available, in writing, after the next full Council meeting. No results will be made available before the Council meeting.

Q23: Are previous examination questions papers available?
A23: There are no previous examination papers available as the examination is computer based. Candidates may contact the training institutions to obtain study notes.

Q24: Will the applicant get the administration fee back when there is a request for a refund of the examination fee?
A24: No, the administration fee is non-refundable.

Q25: Will the applicant get the examination fee back when there is a request for a refund of the examination fee?
A25: No, the examination fee is non-refundable, but may be transferred once and only to the subsequent examination offering. Please note that failure of a candidate to sit the examination without proper reason will result in forfeiture of the examination fee (proper reasons include sickness via a valid medical certificate or another properly motivated reason).

Q27: Will veterinary candidates who pass the Registration Examination be expected to complete Compulsory Community Service (CCS)?
A27: In terms of regulation 2.1 of the Regulations relating to the performance of compulsory community service (CCS), Persons Who Shall Perform Compulsory Community Service, published in Government Gazette No. 39380, Notice NO. R. 1082, on 9 November 2015 compulsory community service shall be performed by every person registering for the first time as a veterinarian in terms of the Act and shall include a person who obtained his or her qualifications outside the Republic of South Africa, unless exempted in terms of these regulations.

Regulation 7 provides for the circumstances under which certain persons may be exempted from the performance of compulsory community service and reads as follows:

“The Minister may, after consultation with the Council, exempt persons who fall within the following categories from compulsory community service:

a) Persons who obtained veterinary related post graduate qualifications outside the Republic of South Africa; or

b) Persons who belong to para-veterinary professions.”
