Astral Operations Ltd

currently has the following vacancy:

ANALYST - Level 2 (Serology Laboratory)

Central Analytical Laboratory

The ideal candidate would be responsible for:

- Provide feedback to the Operations Manager with all work related matters;
- Perform all test method (ELISA & HI) according to the training capacity or competency;
- Data capturing;
- Perform and report tests within specified turn-around time;
- Maintain minimum stock level of all material needed;
- Participate in Serology proficiency testing schemes;
- Review and verify test results;
- Use appropriate methods and techniques to carry out diagnostic tests;
- Participate in elaborating and reviewing of SOP’s;
- Promote and maintain laboratory safety procedure at section level;
- Promote and maintain efficient laboratory conditions required for personnel safety and effective running of diagnostic tests;
- Provide guidance to laboratory assistants;
- Complete/Participate in Non-conformance investigations;
- Assistance with other work when and as required. Perform contingency work for Level 2 and Level 1 when and as instructed by the Operations and/or General Manager.

The successful candidate must meet the following requirements:

- Fully Registered with SAVC as a Veterinary technologist (not student registration);
- A minimum of a 3 year degree or diploma in Veterinary technology;
- A minimum of a 1 year work experience, performing ELISA based tests;
- Must be computer literate;
- Ability to carry out Laboratory bench work and interpret results;
- Analytical and innovative thinking;
- Ability to write SOP’s according to minimum standards;
- Ability to implement plans;
- Clear understanding of QMS (ISO/IEC 17025) Laboratory accreditation principles

We offer a competitive total guaranteed salary package

Closing date: 30/10/2020

You can apply for this position by emailing neil.dominy@calsa.co.za

Please note if you have not been contacted by 06/11/2020 your application was unsuccessful.

Astral is committed to the process of developing a diverse workforce.